HOW TO CELEBRATE PRIDE GLOBALLY AND VIRTUALLY

- USA

- HBO : Human By Orientation Virtual Pride - Events from live performances from Janelle Monae and Todrick Hall, Drag Brunch with Rupaul Drag Race Stars, Voguing classes and so much more.
- Minnesota & AARP - 2020 Twin Cities LGBTQ+ Pride Parade honouring Ashley Rukes is going virtual and WCCO is proud to bring it into households across Minnesota and Western Wisconsin. On Sunday, June 28 at 11 a.m., WCCO will broadcast the first hour of the virtual parade on channel 4. The parade will also be streamed, in its entirety, on CBSN Minnesota.
- Pittsburgh Pride Month Reel: Teaming up with other local organizations, Reel Q will offer films and virtual events from June 18 to the end of July, beginning at 7 p.m. Thursday with a screening of "Pier Kids."
- NYC Pride - NYC Pride will also hold a virtual rally on June 26 from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. It will be hosted by Ashlee Marie Preston, the first transgender person to openly run for state office in California, and Brian Michael Smith, a transgender actor who has starred in "Homeland," "Queen Sugar" and "The L Word: Generation Q." Speakers include Ceyenne Doroshow, Annie Segarra, Edafe Okporo and Leandro E. Rodriguez Ramos.
- NYC Pride Special Broadcast - Our Special Pride Broadcast Event will feature performances by Janelle Monáe, Deborah Cox, Billy Porter, Luísa Sonza and more. Expect to see appearances by Wilson Cruz, Miss Richfield 1981, Margaret Cho and others. WABC's Ken Rosato and Lauren Glassberg will host the special joined by special guest co-host Carson Kressley, along with correspondents Sam Champion and Kemberly Richardson.
- Them: 'Out Now Live' - Them, an online L.G.B.T.Q. magazine, is gathering stars from all corners of entertainment to celebrate Pride and raise money for the Ali Forney Center, which provides services and shelter for homeless L.G.B.T.Q. youth. The digital broadcast, called "Out Now Live," will include performances, speeches, storytelling and messages from prominent members of the community and allies — as well as educational vignettes on L.G.B.T.Q. history and activism from the 1970s to now.

- Frameline44 Pride Showcase - In celebration of San Francisco Pride Weekend, Frameline will present the Frameline44 Pride Showcase, June 25 – June 28, 2020. The Pride Showcase will feature the special World Premiere of Ahead of the Curve at the West Wind Solano Drive-In, on Saturday, June 27, 2020, as well as the return of perennial favorites “Fun in Boys Shorts,” “Fun in Girls Shorts,” and “Transtastic” short film programs, a raucous showcase of the finest in short films.
- Trans March - Join us for our first ever virtual Trans March coming to you from San Francisco, California and all around the country (maybe even the world!).
- Los Angeles’s first virtual Pride parade will air as a 90-minute prime-time special on ABC7, which will also broadcast the event online. Through historical vignettes and in-depth interviews, the special will highlight local unsung heroes, queer culture and community activists.
- Chicago Pride Fest - The Northalsted Business Alliance is bringing Boystown — a neighbourhood that is home to one of the largest L.G.B.T.Q. communities in the Midwest — to the world with the Chicago Pride Fest livestream and chat, celebrating the love, life and diversity of Chicago’s community. LeAnn Rimes, Mr. Grand, Boy Band Review, Catfight, The Vixen and others will perform; Ruff N’ Stuff will host.
- Denver Pride - At the same time that Denver’s Pride parade would have started down Colfax Avenue in the heart of the city, the Denver Virtual Pride Parade will begin online. And instead of floats, there will be so-called parade units: digital shorts from community groups and members, corporate and commercial supporters and sponsors, and drag queens and kings.
- Ireland
 - Digital Dublin Pride Festival - Even though revellers will not be crowding Dublin’s O’Connell Street this year, organizers hope that people from all over the world will crowd its digital offerings. Dublin Pride said it was the largest fund-raising event of the year for many of the nation's L.G.B.T.Q. community organizations and charities. Digital Dublin Pride Festival will include an interactive virtual parade at 9 a.m. and a concert at 2 p.m. on June 28, as well as virtual walking tours, talk and exhibitions throughout the month. The parade will be a mix of submissions from L.G.B.T.Q. community organizations and partners, as well as recorded and live submissions from the public.

- UK

- Pride Inside, From Amnesty International UK - Pride Inside — a collaboration among Amnesty International UK, Black Pride UK, Stonewall UK, ParaPride — is a digital celebration bringing together L.G.B.T.Q. artists, musicians, comedians, D.J.s and activists for performances, talks and workshops. Its aim is to raise awareness about how some studies have found that the pandemic may disproportionately affect L.G.B.T.Q. people.
- #WorkPride - #WorkPride is a global online conference held by myGwork that comprises events for professionals, graduates, employers and more. The conference's mission is to ensure the L.G.B.T.Q. business community is visible and celebrated, particularly during the pandemic. Among other topics, sessions will focus on inclusiveness, employee resource groups and networks, and well-being and support.
- BiFi Festival - This event from Bi Pride UK (which last year said it held the biggest bi gathering in history), which kicks off at 1 p.m., will be a virtual celebration of bi voices and will include discussions, panels and entertainment, including an after-party with a live D.J.
- Essex Pride Uploaded - Essex Pride, an annual bash since 2003, will livestream its Uploaded event starting at 11 a.m. The event will featuring special guests, performances, interviews, and a look back at Essex Pride's past and the history of the Pride movement.
- #YouMeUsWe, online with a call to action: 30,000 acts of "allyship" — "one for every person who would have marched in the parade," reads a statement
